THE AMARILLO

VERSATILITY

MEETINGS

The Amarillo Suite provides a beautifully elegant setting either for conventional boardroom meetings or less formal sofa conferences in central London. Seating eight people comfortably in a boardroom environment, or eight for a stylish sofa meeting, the five-star rooms also provide an impressive setting for lunch, dinner or breakfast. A dedicated events manager is on hand for all business requirements.

LAUNCHES

Sophisticated, calming and beautifully balanced, the Amarillo's rooms are one of the most sought-after launch venues in central London. The suite provided an elegant, yet never distracting setting for the series of press interviews for a top professional hair salon which launched its new range of hair care products. Several other brands including the World's largest online seller of branded intimate apparel have also been drawn to this wonderfully atmospheric, naturally lit space.

EVENTS

From birthdays and discreet after-parties to private fashion shows and wine tastings, the Amarillo Suite is one of central London's most attractive entertainment venues. Up to 80 people can be comfortably accommodated in a drinks reception, and the space can be spectacularly dressed for dinners and lunches. Security management and CCTV controls ensure that all events remain exclusive.

FILMING

The five-star rooms of the Amarillo Suite offer an ideal setting for movie premieres and TV interviews. With wonderful natural lighting, the exclusive rooms provide a sophisticated setting for television broadcasters and music video producers.
